PREFACE

The Catalog

This is the first edition of the National Park Service Mail Order Catalog. Our purpose in producing this catalog is to make more readily available to the millions of people who use National Parks those books which are the best on each park site. We especially hope that people will now find it easier to acquire and use these books before their visit to a park site, helping to make that visit even more enjoyable and meaningful.

To ensure the quality of our listings, the selection of books for each park was made with major assistance from the National Park Service staff at the respective sites, especially the interpretive specialists. The catalog was then assembled by Parks and History Association and orders will be handled through the National Bookstore, one of our major sales outlets.

Cooperating Associations

Parks and History Association is a cooperating association of the National Park Service. There are almost 60 of these non-profit, educational organizations across the country working to promote the educational and scientific activities of the National Park Service by: publishing, purchasing and selling appropiate literature at about 240 areas of the National Park System; acquiring display materials and equipment for park museums and exhibits; supporting special interpretive programs, such as living history demonstrations; supporting park libraries and reference collections; and a wide variety of othe forms of support for the historical, scientific and educational activities of the National Park Service.

THADDEUS KOSCIUSZKO NATIONAL MEMORIAL
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Washington was the first city in the world ever built specifically to be a nation's capital and, partially as a result, the National Park Service has a unique role in this special city. There are over 300 places in the D. C. area administered or maintained by the Service - ranging from the tiny green spaces in traffic circles, to Rock Creek Park which, with over 2000 acres, in many ways is the natural backbone of the city. Among the wide variety of areas in Washington administered by the Park Service are the White House, the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, the Mall area (including the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials and the Washington Monument), and the home base of this catalog, the National Visitor Center. Because of all this, we are handling Washington in a slightly different way in this catalog.

FILMS ON PARKS

In this first edition of the National Park Service Mail Order Catalog, we are including a small sampling of the many fine films produced for the National Park Service and available for sale:

APE COD
16mm Color/Sound. length 16:40
Through a pictorial essay technique, coupled with an original music score of great imagination and professional skill and a blank verse narrative, this motion picture attempts to focus attention upon the variety of experiences which await visitors to Cape Cod National Seashore. By concentrating on the special small beauties which make up the Cape a deeper understanding of the seashore area is sought. The film has won many international awards including a gold medal at the International Festival in La Spezia, Italy and a CINE Golden Eagle.
910F01.....$84

FIRE AND ICE
16mm Color/Sound. length 20:30
Through evocative photography and mood setting music, this beautiful film details the fiery formation of Mount Rainier across eons of geologic time and its gradual erosion as the forces of water and wind sculpture and furnish this sleeping volcano. Winner of awards from CINE, the U.S. Industrial Film Festival and the International Festival of Mountain and Exploration Films in Trento, Italy.
910F02.....$195.00

INDEPENDENCE
16mm Color/Sound. length 30:00
John Huston directs this film giving relevance and life to the hallowed buildings and ground mking up Independence National Historical Park. Through vignettes, the people and events are re-created for the viewer. Winner CINE Golden Eagle.
910F03.....$200.00

MAGNIFICENCE IN TRUST
16mm Color/Sound. length 25:00
The story of three magnificent parks in Alaska. Glaciers rumbling and seals playing among the icebergs of Glacier Bay National Monument; leaping salmon, huge brown bears and smoldering volcanoes of Katmai National Monument; the towering splendor of North America's highest peak forming a backdrop for caribou, mountain sheep, moose and grizzly bears at Mount McKinley National Park -- all combine to tell the story of the major parks of the National Park Service in Alaska. Produced for the National Park Service by world renowned mountain climber and leader of the American Everest Expedition, Norman G. Dyhrenfurth and winner of a CINE Golden Eagle.
910F04.....$195.00
